Dear Parents/Guardians,

We have had an excellent start to our school year here at Milford Public School. Faculty, staff and students have settled in nicely, and there is an eagerness by all to continue a year of learning.

We will be holding our Back to School Night on Tuesday, September 10th beginning at 6:30 pm. We will start the Night with a brief meeting for parents in the Multipurpose Room while teachers prepare their classrooms for the evening. After the meeting, parents may report directly to your child's classroom. Teachers will send home a schedule for parents so you get a chance to meet with all of the teachers throughout the evening. A copy of the schedule will be sent home on Monday, September 9th. It will also be posted in school, by the main office, for your viewing that evening.

I would like to remind you that the purpose of Back to School Night is to highlight the curriculum that will be taught during the year. Our teachers will not have the time to discuss the progress of each individual student, but they will be more than willing to set up a meeting with you, should you deem that necessary. Parent conferences are scheduled for Monday, November 25th and Tuesday, November 26th. These conferences will give you the opportunity to discuss the progress of your child with our teachers. Scheduling for these conferences will take place the first week of November.

We appreciate your time and cooperation in this matter, and look forward to seeing you on September 10th.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Hesington
Interim Principal
