

Homework Assistance and Completion Program 2015-16

J. McCaffrey, J. Malecki, V. Milford

Purpose

- Mandatory attendance for students who did not complete meaningful and purposeful homework assignment(s)
- Voluntarily attendance for students who may need extra assistance with homework assignment(s)

About the Program

- Grades 6-8
- October 1st - June 1st
- Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
- 3:40-5pm
- AMS media center

Outcomes

- Student completion of homework assignments
- Increase student achievement
- Receive additional support and assistance

How the Program Operates

- Teachers identify students who are missing any homework assignment(s) throughout the week
- Parent is notified of missing assignments via email on Friday
- Student has Friday, Saturday, and Sunday to complete assignment(s) to turn in by the deadline (Monday morning)

Deadline

- If assignment is not turned in by the deadline, Monday morning, your child must attend the program Tuesday
- You will be notified via email on Monday if your child must attend

At the Program

- During the session, your child will be monitored on completion of assignment
- If work is completed with time remaining, student will be provided supplemental work
- If work is NOT completed, student must attend the following session the next day
- Parent will be notified after each session
- Any disruptions will result in ISS

Volunteers

- If your child wants to voluntarily attend the program, a volunteer form needs to be signed and returned a day in advance of the session
- These forms are located in each student's homeroom
- They must be turned into Ms. Malecki (room 14) during homeroom

Paperwork (in addition to emails)

- After each session, your child will receive a green or pink slip
 - Green = completed session
 - Pink = needs to attend another session

Parent Responsibilities

- Check email daily
- Pick up child on time (by 5 pm)
- Encourage & support child to complete homework
- Check teacher webpages for daily assignments

Questions

- For any additional questions you may have please contact:

malecki@alexandriaschools.org