On school web page, bottom right, PTA Box, click it, find all forms, flyers and current fund raisers.

Homeroom Parents-Cristina Saluccio gathers all sheets and arranges class parents. Victoria handed out the class parent responsibilities and a sample class directory sheet. She encouraged the homeroom parents that the first class to get every parent as a member of the PTA will receive a class party.

Holiday Market was discussed-will need parent volunteers, maybe peer leaders could also help out.

Book Fair-Shannon Sklodowsky will run the book fair-October 19- through October 23 during school hours. The pumpkin contest entries will be on display during the book fair. All pumpkin contest winners receive a $5.00 voucher for the book fair. Sign ups will be sent looking for volunteers to help the children during the book fair.

Bedtimes Stories-October 21st Tanya Drake and Lisa Towle-Chairing the event-Will ask the special area teachers to help read stories. Book fair will be open prior to bedtimes stories and after until 7:15

Dash-Sarah Ruppert gave an overall of the program-runs fall/spring. Needs some volunteers to help run the classes, making sure kids get to the right class and are signed out by parents at the end. Went over the pros and cons of an online registration system. Looking into archery/fencing, Internet safety class or a social media class for the spring dash classes.

Trunk or Treat-October 24th-at Kingwood Park-Hot dogs, chips and drinks will be served; DJ will also be there. Encourage all families to participate, the more trunks the more fun. Go to www.pinterest.

Copy Club-Patty Belmonte is looking for other volunteers 9-11 am, copy laminate whatever the teachers need help with. Mrs. Michalski praised the copy club helpers-the teacher really appreciate it and helps them tremendously.

Spirit Wear-flyer will be coming out shortly.

Stuff Your Face-November 26th-9:00 am-need some volunteers-spread the word. Looking to see if we can get sponsors.

Meals on Wheels-looking for volunteers to help with deliveries.
